TODAY, GOD IS SAYING TO ME

NEXT GEN IN TEN (NG10)

Psalm 48:1-14; Psalm 78:1-4

Don't pour your life _____, pour your life _____ (to the next generation).

1. Psalm 48 is called a "psalm of Zion." It was to be sung in the Temple during the Jews' pilgrimage to Jerusalem. What did Psalm 48 encourage Israel to reflect on in worship?
2. What does Psalm 48 and Psalm 78:1-4 command Israel to do?
3. The first year goal of NG10 is to get our entire church in motion in three ways:
 - a. _____ We want to partner with ministries, charities, and non-profits who are already impacting the next generation and their families.
 - b. _____ We need everyone who calls Central their home church to volunteer at Central. Everyone is an active participant and not a passive spectator.
 - c. _____ God has given everyone passions, talents and hobbies. Pioneers are people who use their talents in innovative ways to impact the next generation.
