Part 3: Ephesians 1:3-14 "Holy and Blameless"

Everything _____ God intends for us _____ opposes!

1. Spiritual or positional holiness is called

_____. It means to be declared "not guilty" by God. This is constant and unchanging. (I Corinthians 1:30; II Corinthians 5:21)

2. Ethical or practical holiness is called

_____. It's the _____ of living more like Christ each day. This is always changing as we mature spiritually. (I Peter 1:14-16)

When God looks at _____ He sees _____!

Since God declares me to be holy and blameless in Christ, how can I expect Satan to attack me?
