

Jeff Wheeler
Lead Pastor

Welcome to Central!

Thanks for being at Central today. We are excited that you are here and don't believe it is an accident that you've joined us today! We are hoping the next 70 minutes is the most spiritually encouraging 70 minutes of your week!

We are continuing a sermon series called, "When All Else Fails." It's a series about prayer. Have you ever prayed for something and then forgot that you even asked God for it? Think about that. Does that seem strange? I mean, how significant are the things you're asking for if you later forget about them? If you were interviewing for a position that would be a major promotion for you, would you just forget about it, or would you be consumed by it until you got the answer? If you made an offer on your dream home would you forget about it or keep calling your realtor to see if it was accepted? But with prayer I wonder if my prayers require any faith at all if I don't even remember whether they were answered or not? Am I really asking for stuff that requires much faith? What if Jesus wanted us to ask for things that only God could do and then be amazed when they happened? That is faith-filled prayer. Are you ready to make that kind of ask of God?

Thanks for joining us today!

Pastor Jeff
