

Jeff Wheeler
LEAD PASTOR

WELCOME TO CENTRAL!

Thanks for joining us at Central this weekend for one of our worship services. We don't believe it's an accident that you're here and believe God has a special purpose for you today. We're glad you're here!

Today we are beginning a new sermon series called "Bridges." Bridges connect things that otherwise couldn't be connected. Bridges make it possible to travel to places ordinarily impossible. I'm thankful for bridges. Relationships are a lot like bridges in that they connect us to people. Have you ever thought about the "bridge" that connects you to certain people? Sometimes the bridge is a common neighborhood, sometimes it's a common workplace or school and sometimes it's a mutual friend. We get connected to people through lots of different bridges.

What if God was responsible for these bridges? What if God directed our lives strategically to connect with certain people? What if there was a purpose for every relational bridge we have today? Would that make you look at your relationships differently? Well I believe He does. And there's even a Greek word for it. It's called "oikos." No, it's not yogurt. It's a bridge... well sort of!

So glad you're here!
