

Jeff Wheeler
LEAD PASTOR

WELCOME TO CENTRAL TODAY!

We are so glad you've joined us for one of our Community Worship services. We believe you'll be inspired to live differently after the next 70 minutes!

Today we continue a series called, "Imperfect Family." There are no perfect families because they're all made up of imperfect people like you...and me! Have you ever been in a situation where you really needed someone's help but were too proud to accept it? Why is that? Why is it so hard for us to receive help from others?

What if weakness was part of God's plan for our growth? What if God wanted us to admit we can't figure things out on our own, or make it by ourself? What if people were part of God's answer to our prayers? I sometimes wonder if part of God's plan for our maturity is depending on others instead of trying to do everything ourselves. What we need is true humility. Easily said, but harder to do. Let's explore what Jesus said about this together!

Thanks for joining us today!

To those who gave birth this year to their first child—we celebrate with you.

To those who lost a child this year—we mourn with you.

To those who are in the trenches with little ones every day and wear the badge of food stains—we appreciate you.

To those who experienced loss through miscarriage, failed adoptions, or running away—we mourn with you.

To those who walk the hard path of infertility, fraught with pokes, prods, tears, and disappointment—we walk with you. Forgive us when we say foolish things. We don't mean to make this harder than it is.

To those who are foster moms, mentor moms, and spiritual moms—we need you.

To those who have warm and close relationships with your children—we celebrate with you.

To those who have disappointment, heartache, and distance with your children—we sit with you.

To those who lost their mothers this year—we grieve with you.

To those who lived through driving tests, medical tests, and the overall testing of motherhood—we are better for having you in our midst.

To those who are single and long to be married and mothering your own children—we mourn that life has not turned out the way you longed for it to be.

To those who step-parent—we walk with you on these complex paths.

To those who envisioned lavishing love on grandchildren—yet that dream is not to be, we grieve with you.

To those who will have emptier nests in the upcoming year—we grieve and rejoice with you.

To those who placed children up for adoption—we commend you for your selflessness and remember how you hold that child in your heart.

And to those who are pregnant with new life, both expected and surprising—we anticipate with you.

This Mother's Day, we walk with you. Mothering is not for the faint of heart and we have real warriors in our midst. We remember you.
