Read Psalm 10

What does the opening verse indicate about David's feelings?

This Psalm gives no indication of the context. What do you suppose is David's predicament?

What terms does this Psalm use to describe oppressed people (especially in verses 8-14)? How is this a reflection of God's heart? What will He do for them?

Apply

David is describing "the wicked" and "the oppressed." How often do you encounter people who would fall into either of these categories? What is your attitude toward them?

How does this Psalm serve as a model for prayer during times of crisis?

Are you currently going through a crisis? How does this Psalm resonate with your feelings and your faith?

Pray

Pray for anyone currently experiencing a crisis. Pray for the oppressed, helpless, or afflicted, knowing that God will sustain and deliver them.
