Think Small

You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere humans? For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not mere human beings? What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants, through whom you came to believe—as the Lord has assigned to each his task. I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God has been making it grow. So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. The one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and they will each be rewarded according to their own labor. For we are co-workers in God's service; you are God's field, God's building. By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

- 1 Corinthians 3:3-11 (NIV)

Planting seeds is like making _____ into peoples' _____.

Watering is providing _____ and ongoing _____.

It is always _____ who draws people to _____.

Remember today:

1. _____ are what God asks of us.
2. Do _____!

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the father and of the son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, even to the very end of the age.

-Matthew 28:19-20 (NIV)

Don't let " _____ " become the enemy of the " _____."

"Who dares despise the day of small things?"

-Zechariah 4:10 (NIV)

THANK YOU, VOLUNTEERS!

We want to say a special thank you to ALL of the incredible volunteers who helped make Christmas at Central a welcoming and inviting experience for our members and guests.
