

Next Gen Weekend

One Body, Many Parts

1 Corinthians 12:12-27

Launch

Have you ever wished God made you with a different personality, abilities, or strengths? If so, who would your perfect self be like?

Explore

Read the passage

What do verses 21-24 teach us about human nature and God's response?

What is the main idea of this passage?

Why does Paul sandwich this lesson between passages about spiritual gifts (12:1-11) and love (13:1-13)?

Apply

What types of diversity do you see at Central? How does this play out in the types of ministry that we offer? If you grew up at a different church, compare/contrast it to the diversity here at Central.

Have you ever felt unnecessary at Central? Explain.

How have you seen verse 26 on display in your own experience?

How does our structure and culture at Central promote or inhibit the diversity of spiritual gifts, ages, and personalities? What can we do to improve this?

Pray

Pray that all ages and types of people would experience true connection to the body of Christ, functioning together in the way they were meant to.
