Philippians: A Life to Die For

Part 11: A Life of Peace

So then, my dearly loved and longed for brothers and sisters, my joy and crown, in this manner stand firm in the Lord, dear friends. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to agree in the Lord. Yes, I also ask you, true partner, to help these women who have contended for the gospel at my side, along with Clement and the rest of my coworkers whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your graciousness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Don't worry about anything, but in everything, through prayer and petition with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable—if there is any moral excellence and if there is anything praiseworthy—dwell on these things. Do what you have learned and received and heard from me, and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

- Philippians 4:1-9 (CSB)

God gives us two types of peace:

_____ (External) Peace: Freedom from _____

_____ (Internal) Peace: Freedom from _____

Keys to experiencing the peace of God:

_____ to God (vs 6)

_____ with God (vs 8-9)

Additional scriptures: John 14:27; Philippians 2:13; Isaiah 26:3

We hope you'll share your gifts and talents with our kids.

GOOD FRIDAY - APRIL 19 - We will be offering two Good Friday services this year at 5:00 and 6:30pm.
