Answering the Call: Studies in Nehemiah

Part 7: Positivity - Nehemiah 6:1, 15-16

Now when it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, to Geshem the Arab and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall, and that no breach remained in it, although at that time I had not set up the doors in the gates, then Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together at Chephirim in the plain of Ono." But they were planning to harm me. (Nehemiah 6:1-2 NASB)

It's easier to see the _____ in the _____ than the wall!

Everybody is _____ at _____! Good leaders identify where the scoreboard is in people's favor!

- 1. To focus on the wall is to focus on _____.

Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, dwell on these things. (Philippians 4:8 NASB)

- 2. To focus on the wall is to focus on _____.

So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of the month Elul, in fifty-two days. When all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations surrounding us saw it, they lost their confidence; for they recognized that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God. (Nehemiah 6:15-16 NASB)

Stop being a gap gazer! Become a wall watcher!
